School Board OKs $200 Teacher, Staff Pay Hike

The Orinda School Board this week authorized across-the-board pay increases of $200 a year for Orinda School District teachers.

The board voted to increase minimum salaries from the present $4,200 to $4,400. Maximum teachers' salaries were also increased from the present $7,460 to $7,660.

Similarly, "non - certificated" school workers—secretarial help, janitors, maintenance men—were awarded $10 a month increases.

The increases go into effect next fall.

Jack Clark, sixth grade teacher at Sleepy Hollow School, was appointed principal at Glorietta School to replace Mrs. Margaret Anderson, who will retire this year.

The board appointed Mrs. Inez Lillie, a teacher, as the librarian at Pine Grove School.

The board also authorized full-time posts for the positions of guidance teacher, speech teacher and teacher for immature children. No appointments have been made to these posts as yet.

District Superintendent Joseph Sheaff explained that the Orinda School District is currently paying the county for teachers who fill these posts on a part-time basis in Orinda. The Monday night board action allows the district full-time instructors in these posts, at a fraction more than the district is currently paying the county, he said.

The guidance teacher will work in a counseling capacity with parents and children; the speech teacher will work mainly in speech correction work; and the teacher for immature children will work with children who are emotionally not adapted to their grade level.

In other business, the board accepted donations of $1,575 from the Orinda Mothers Club. The money, contributed annually as proceeds from the Mothers Club dance, is to be allocated to school libraries.

The board accepted the resignation of four teachers and granted a leave of absence to another.

The grand jury education committee, scheduled for a visit Monday, failed to appear.

The board also adopted an educational code as presented by director of curriculum Everett McNicholas.

You Can Meet County School Board Candidates Wednesday Evening

County Superintendent of Schools candidates will be a high point on the program Wednesday night when they lead off an evening of school post discussions.

The meeting, sponsored by The Sun and The Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of University Women, will start at 8 p.m. sharp at Walnut Creek School on Walnut Boulevard just off Ygnacio Valley Road.

A question and answer period will follow the talks by candidates.

After the County School Superintendent candidates have spoken, candidates for trustee of the Walnut Creek School District will speak. This will be followed by a presentation by DeWitt Krueger, of the reasons for calling for a tax increase for the Walnut Creek District on May 20.

The program will be moderated by Mrs. Margaret Price. Mrs. James Buckley, president of the AAUW, will open the meeting.

She will present Herman Silverman, Sun Publisher, who will introduce Mrs. Price.

Speeches will be short. The county candidates will each have seven minutes, as will the Walnut Creek School Board candidates.

Brevity will be insured by a timekeeper from the Mt. Diablo Toastmasters Club, who will come prepared with buzzer and flashing lights to insure that no candidate exceeds his allotted time at the microphone.

Why not reserve the evening now. It will be an excellent opportunity to met the candidates before election and to make up your mind intelligently concerning the people and the issues.

Chamber Hears Officer Slate

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce, at its noon meeting Tuesday at the Casa Orinda, heard the slate of officers for the coming year, as presented by nominating committee chairman Merle Brown.

John Ogden was nominated for president, Irving "Bud" Leiber for vice-president, and Clarence Betz for secretary-treasurer.

There were no nominations from the floor. Elections will be at the next Chamber meeting, May 20.

In other business, Chamber members heard a representative of E.B.M.U.D. speak on the forthcoming bond issue election.

Chamber members were not called on to vote for or against the bond issue. However, Chamber officials said the membership may be asked to vote on the matter at the next Chamber meeting.

President Maynard Buehler presided at the meeting.

Most recent contribution was from the Hi-Fi's of Girl Scout Troop 214.

Contributions may be sent to the "Helping Hand Fund" at the First Western Bank, or may be brought in to the bank.

Summer Festival Is First Orinda Promotion Event

Orinda's first big business promotion for the coming year will be the "Orinda Vacation Festival," Al Baer, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Merchants Committee, told Chamber members Tuesday.

Dates for the event will be June 5-7 and merchants will be featuring travel apparel, drugs, furniture, summer food and hardware. Orinda's summer activities will be the theme of the promotion, Baer said, with special accents on sports cars, boats, backyard activities and house trailers.

Baer told Chamber members that more than 20 Orinda busines firms have already signed up for the "Vacation Festival."

Baer stated, "It is our hope that every business and professional man in Orinda will join in our planned year-long business program, the goal of which is to make our community more aware of Orinda's excellent business and professional facilities. We can do it by working together, but it will take the hard work and cooperation of everyone."

Baer noted that his committee will be meeting every week to chart detailed plans of the "Vacation Festival" and the five other major merchandising events which are planned so far.

Additional details on the coming event, and other business promotions, will appear regularly in the papers, Baer said.

Two-Fisted Action To Highlight Earp Show for YMCA

Wyatt Earp and a score of Hollywood favorites will be on hand tomorrow afternoon at the Concord Shopping Center for a gala western variety show to benefit the Mt. Diablo Y.M.C.A.

"As a YMCA benefit all proceeds will go to buy property and help the new Mount Diablo YMCA get underway," said John Price, director.

"Tickets priced at $1.50 for children and $2.25 for adults, may be obtained at King Norman's Playland, Concord; Oak Park Food Center, Pleasant Hill and the YMCA office on Sunnyvale Avenue, Walnut Creek," he continued.

Hugh O'Brian, born far from Hollywood in Rochester, New York, was educated at New Trier High School in Winnetka, Ill., Kemper Military College in Missouri and Cincinnati University. His early plans were to become a lawyer and his most active interests in High School and College were student government and athletics. He took courses at Los Angeles City College where he majored in political science and minored in English.

The shows will be staged at the huge shopping center at Willow Pass Road and Market Street in Concord from 2 to 4 p.m. Price stated.

Moraga Plan Decision Due This Tuesday

The Contra Costa Planning Commission is scheduled to make its final decision on the long-pending Moraga Master Plan on Tuesday.

Points of contention in the proposed plan are an area of approximately nine acres which is earmarked for a future shopping center in Lafayette, and an increase in the controlled manufacturing area.

Utah Construction Company, which owns about half the 9,500-acres area in the general plan, is requesting both the shopping center site and the increase in area for manufacturing sites.

Crossroads Landscape Plans Jell

Plans for the beautification of Orinda's crossroads section are now being drawn up for submission to a county landscape architect, Mrs. Paul L. Pollaczek, chairman of the Orinda Beautification committee, said Thursday.

She stated that her committee met a week ago to chart final plans for the beautification of the downtown section. As soon as the plans are finalized they will be sent to Ray Thayer, landscape architect with the County Planning Commission staff, she said.

She explained that all plans concerning landscaping of county highways must be submitted to the county for approval.

Mrs. Pollaczek said that a tentative meeting of her committee is planned for Thursday and that it is hoped to present the landscape plans to the Orinda Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, May 20.

Orinda Schools Tops: Ainsworth

Orinda elementary schoolchildren are getting a much better than average education, a comparative study of national and state statistics just completed by J. Gordon Ainsworth, candidate for the Orinda school board of trustees at the May 20 election, reveals.

"Our children are receiving instruction much above the California state requirements and very much above the national level," Ainsworth said his investigation showed. "These facts coupled with the recent announcement by Orinda's superintendent of schools stating that next year's school costs may be met without an increase in taxes is certainly good news for Orinda parents," the candidate said.

As evidence of Orinda's superiority, Ainsworth pointed out that whereas in grades one through six the state requires 50 per cent of school hours be spent on reading, writing, arithmetic, language, spelling and civics, Orinda schools concentrate more than 70 per cent of the school day on these fundamental subjects.

Other items Ainsworth found to be on the Orinda schools' credit ledger are long-range construction plans geared to realistic enrollment estimates and present building completed at a cost lower than state average. He also noted a planned program for the brighter than average student as well as one for children who are slow learners. Finally, he said that "Nation's School", a digest of national school standings, points to Orinda's summer school program as an outstanding example of educational leadership.

"Our board of trustees and school administration, with the help of interested parents, have made unusual progress to date," Ainsworth declared. "I would like an opportunity to work with this fine team to help make sure that Orindans continue to strive for the best in education at the lowest possible cost."

Ainsworth addressed the Orinda School Parents' Club, the Orinda Nursery School Parents and the Harvard Business School Bay Area Association this week as well as attending the regular monthly meeting of the Orinda Union School District Board of Trustees.

Central Sanitary District Lets $2½ Millions in Bonds

The Central Contra Costa Sanitary District received bids on a $2,500,000 bond issue May 1 and the apparent successful bid of the 3.609 percent received was submitted by Bank of America.

The funds provided by the sale of these bonds will be used to finance the outfall sewer from the District's Treatment Plant on the Arnold Highway to the deep water channel of Suisun Bay.

THE INSTALLATION will consist of approximately 21,000 feet of 72 inches diameter reinforced concrete pipe which will receive the efficient produced by the District's modern Treatment Plant that is currently under expansion. Construction of the plant will be completed about January 1, 1959.

Construction of the outfall sewer incorporates a number of unusual construction conditions that have attracted the attention of contractors throughout the state. These include a 1700 foot submarine line which incorporates ports along its axis to permit uniform dissemination into the receiving water in such a manner as to create no health problem.

Another feature of the design is a weir structure located at the land end of the submarine section to assure that the line from the plant flows in a full condition at all times. This is necessary, the consultants explain, to eliminate the possibility of internal corosion of the line.

The outfall sewer will proceed in a northerly direction and crosses under the Atchison Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, the Southern Pacific Railroad, the Avon Martinez Highway and several other cargo lines belonging to the oil companies fronting the Bay.

DISTRICT OFFICIALS explain that this outfall permits the District to release its extensive leased land holdings to a greater degree of use, thereby permitting development in that area to proceed in an orderly manner.

A future advantage of the outfall sewer permis tthe continued employment of primary treatment at the district's treatment plant, which will result in a olng range saving to the residents of the district. The line itself is designed to operate in a gravity manner until such time as the flow to the line reaches 75 million gallons per day. After this peak has been reached, a pumping station will be added at the plant to permit continued use of the outfall as a pressure line to its ultimate capacity of 150 million gallons per day.

This element of construction is the second major construction undertaking as part of the $8 million bond issue authorized in 1956.

It is worthy of note that every element of construction takes into full account the ultimate projected population of the District in the amount of 820,000 persons and the ultimate service area in the amount of 233 square miles, G. H. Horstkotte, engineer said.

Bids were received for the outfall sewer last week and will be awarded at the next meeting of the District Board of Directors. Low bidders were Duncanson Harrelson Company of Richmond at $165,300 for the submarine section, M. Miller Company of Los Angeles at $407,000 for the wet trench section, and M.G.M. Construction Company of Concord at $898,000 for the dry trench section.

Other work to be accomplished includes pressure mains, tunnel and gravity line over Charles Hill between Orinda and Lafayette.

The Sanitary District and the State Division of Highways have entered into a cooperative agreement for the joint construction of freeway and sewer facilities under one contract due to the extremely limited working area.

The sewer lines involved are adjacent to the freeway except two crossings, and will consist of 3400 feet of parallel 18 in. and 30 in. lined steel pressure pipe, 775 feet of 48 in. concrete lined tunnel, over 5000 ft. of 30 in. concrete pipe and other smaller pipe and structures.

The sewer work is integrated with road construction to avoid delay to either phase of the contract, and the combined savings are expected to be over $100,000.

The District will deposit $400,000 with the State and the Division of Highways will administer the contract with the final accounting based on contract unit bid prices and quantities.

THE TREATMENT PLANT on the Arnold Highway has been under construction since last year and the completed contract will result in one of the most modern plants in the country. The design units without remodeling as flows increase from the development of the District area, Horstkotte noted.

It Will Be Busy, Active Time At Candidates Night

It will be a busy evening May 28 at Acalanes High School when candidates for every major race in the county appear at the Annual Sun Candidates Night.

The program, which will be held on Wednesday instead of Monday, May 26, as originally scheduled, will start at 7:30 p.m. sharp with candidates for Supervisorial District Three teeing off.

They will be followed by Walnut Creek Judicial District; Superior Court Judge, Department VI; House of Representatives, Sixth District; Assembly, 10th District; Sheriff, District Attorney, Assessor, and others.

SEATING WILL be available for more than 500 persons, plus bleacher facilities, so all who attend will be seated where they can both see and hear. There will be a timekeeper provided by the Mt. Diablo Toastmasters Club, who will be equipped with a loud buzzer to insure that no candidate exceeds his allotted time at the microphone.

Speeches will be short and to the point, and a question and answer period will follow each group of candidates. Questions will also be limited so that the program will keep moving.

WHY NOT PLAN to make it a family affair? The evening will provide a good opportunity for the youngsters to see our democratic and governmental processes in action.

And it will be an equally fine opportunity for adult members of the family to acquaint themselves with issues at stake in order to vote more intelligently on election day.

Keep your eyes on The Sun for further details. Information will appear periodically until the traditional Sun Candidates' Night at Acalanes High School, Wednesday, May 28.

Orinda Village Bypass On Ramp Work to Start

Cement treatment of the on ramp extension of the Orinda Village Bypass to Oakland will begin Monday, according to the County Department of Public Works.

Now underway are grading operations and construction of retaining walls. County engineers noted that an underground spring had been found which might have led to future troubles on the new road. A drain blanket is being installed to prevent "bogging" of the roadway.

The public works department announced that the completion date for the Village Bypass has been set for August 1. Construction on the project began July, 1957.

Rock Crusher Decision Due This Tuesday

The County Board of Supervisors this week postposed their decision on the Redwood Canyon rock crusher application until 10 a.m. on Tuesday. The postponement was made to give super visors an opportunity to visit the site of the proposed crusher.

The delay was suggested by Supervisor Melvin Nielsen, who said supervisors should take advantage of the opportunity to view Pinehurst Road. Changing of the road, which would be necessary with the rock crusher operation is a major objection to the application of quarry operator A. J. McCosker.

McCosker had previously been granted a rock crusher application but failed to install the crusher within the time stipulation on the permit.

Public Hearing Scheduled On Conservation Property

The Orinda School District this week asked the District Attorney's office for a letter pointing out that it would be legal for the school district to spend money on an outdoor education site, even though that site is "out of the school district."

The matter came up at Monday night's board meeting when a letter was read from Deputy District Attorney Charles Hemmings.

District Superintendent Joseph Sheaff had requested legal counsel on whether or not it would be advisable for the school district to assume the obligation to make certain improvements on the outdoor education site offered the school district by the Untied State Government.

Regarding the property near Lake Tahoe, Hemmings, in commenting on a special use permit which has been granted the Orinda district by the U. S. Forestry Service, stated that he doubted whether or not the school district could expend money for the development of the site.

AT THE MEETING, however, Superintendent Sheaff noted that in Section 1056 of the Education Code of California, it is stated that a school district may:

". . . acquire and maintain real or personal property needed for outdoor science and education and conservation education programs and classes either within or without the boundaries of the school district, either by purchase, rental, lease, gift or other means, in the same manner as if the property were within the boundaries of the school district."

The section of the state code also provides, Sheaff noted, that "with this authorization the school district may proceed with plans involving the expenditure of school district funds for facilities within or without the district in conducting experimental programs in outdoor science and conservation education."

Acting on Superintendent Sheaff's comments, the school board requested that a letter be obtained from Hemmings relative to the quoted section and that also a committment be obtained from the Forestry Service modifying a section of the special use permit.

THESE TWO THINGS are to be done before a public hearing is held on the Outdoor Education Site in the Sierras.

Sheaff said the board will probably discuss the matter further at the regular board meeting in June. However, he said, a public meeting will be called before any final decision is made concerning the outdoor education land.

Under its "Operation Outdoors" program, the U. S. Forestry Service makes available, without charge, areas of government property which may be used by school districts for their outdoor education and nature study programs.

THE SCHOOL DISTRICTS are, however, obligated to make certain improvements on the property over a 12-year period. Such improvements include the installation of utilities and other facilities. Long range plans can also include construction of buildings.

Superintendent Sheaff noted that the Forestry Service has already granted the School District a use permit for the Sierra property.

The district, Sheaff said, has neither accepted nor rejected the permit. And, he stressed, no action will be taken on the offer until a public hearing is held on the matter.

PUC Grants 4·8% Phone Rate Increase

Pacific Telephone and Telegraph will make some $27 million more this year, following permission of the Public Utilities Commission granting the utility a 4.8 per cent increase in rates Wednesday.

The rate increase means, in general, higher rates for message unit and toll calls and increased basic business service rates. The basic charge for individual home telephones will be approximately the same.

PERMISSION FOR the rate hikes was given in San Francisco by the State Public Utilities Commission which handed down a decision after lengthy hearings held this spring.

Included in the gross revenue increase is $12,016,000 allowed last December as an interim boost in the Los Angeles extended service area. The increase had been contested by Los Angeles officials.

The new rates will produce 32 percent less than the $40,799,000 originally sought by PT and T. The increase is expected to provide the company with a 6.75 percent rate of return on its California investment.

TODAY'S ORDER:

1—Authorizes uniform charges for message unit service throughout California, which in the San Francisco Eastbay service area means reduction from 4.4 cents to 4.25 cents in the message unit rate.

However, at the same time the commission authorized the company to shorten the distance for message unit service which has an overall effect of increasing message unit charges in the Bay Area by $2,942,000 per year.

2—Authorized a 6.4 percent increase for toll charges within the State, mainly for person-to-person calls, totaling $8,766,000 per year.

3—Upped basic exchange rates for business service to produce $1,753,000 per year.

4—Granted residential basic rate increases ranging from 5 cents for four-party suburban and farmer lines to 35 cents for individual flat rate lines in all areas except San Francisco-Eastbay and Los Angeles where homeowners will pay the same basic rate as before.

THE PUC DENIED requested increases in charges for service connections and for certain extensions and special installation of extra charges for retractable extension cords.

The PUC also reduced by $595,000 the amount of money that PT&T pays to American Telephone and Telegraph Company for general services and licenses.

The commission held the company "has not justified its claim for a rate return of the magnitude requested."

Mrs. F. Neuman Cites Schools' Course Needs

"The record-breaking registrations for the Orinda Summer School program have once again demonstrated the community's interest in a well-planned, well-balanced school curriculum."

Mrs. Frances Newman, candidate for Orinda School Board in the May 20 election, and former chairman of the Parents' Curriculum Committee, made this statement Wednesday to the Orinda Parents Club.

Mrs. Newman pointed out that during the first week of registration alone, more pupils signed up than the total enrollment for last year, with a wide range of courses benig selected.

With the two-week registration period ending today, school officials anticipated an increase of more than 50 percent over last summer's enrollment, she said.

"Our school administrators and the School Board are to be highly commended for their pioneering in developing the summer program, now in its fourth year," declared Mrs. Newman.

"Not only have they provided a constructive means of furthering our children's education and a fuller use of our classroom and athletic facilities; the summer program has also been a proving ground for new approaches that frequently have contributed to the offerings during the regular school term," she said.

Mrs. Newman stressed the importance of continuing cooperation of School Board members and parents in supporting administrators' and teachers' exploration in the curriculum field, in the interest of the best schooling for Orinda children.

In a seven-hour session the jurors heard Gerould Gill, chairman; Wilfred Carpenter, Edward Nichols and George Weiss.

John J. Sullivan, investigator for the Compliance Division of the Home and Housing Finance Administration and A. J. Sieberlich, Certified Public Accountant, also testified.

William M. Hale Jr., foreman of the grand jury, informed The Sun the investigation into the activities of the county housing authority would be continued Monday evening when it would hear testimony of James Woods, a resigned commissioner of the authority and a steel mill executive.

Turner expects to be released from the hospital within a week, but stated that he will recuperating at home for another two weeks before he returns to the local supermarket.

Orinda Mills Alumni Cited

Word has come recently to the Orinda Hills Club that the Mills alumnae of Orinda lead the nation in the percentage of gifts to the Alumni Fund for the purpose of improving faculty salaries.

Orinda leads 39 branches throughout the world, largely through the efforts of a number of alumni, led by Mrs. Ruth Gilwee, who called on their Mills neighbors to explain the purpose of the Alumni Fund.

Two years ago, Mills College was the recipient of a Ford Foundation grant for increasing faculty salaries and the Alumnae Association at that time made a pledge to match that grant.

That goal appears within reach this year by June 30.

On Mrs. Gilwee's committee are Mrs. Kirk Miles, Mrs. Stuart Henderson, Mrs. Ben Randall, Mrs. Norman Cunningham and Mrs. Haywood Gathings.

Karplus Cites School Aims

After the Orinda School Trustee meeting on Monday, board candidate Robert Karplus heartily endorsed the statement of educational philosophy that was prepared by a committee of the district and presented by Everett McNicholas.

Noting the similarity between the statement and his own recently expressed views, Karplus said, "One of the reasons why I declared my candidacy and hope that I will be able to serve on the board is the opportunity it will give me for working with Mr. Sheaff and our teachers in furthering the elementary school program. This fine set of principles will remind everyone of our common objective."

Principles adopted by the school board were:

"To provide each child with a firm foundation in the basic subjects.

To broaden the academic experience of each child by providing an enriched educational environment conducive to the stimulation of cultural appreciation.

To provide a curriculum design sufficiently flexible to meet the changing needs of society.

To provide the oppportunity for every child to develop to the fullest extent of his mental and physical capabilities.

To imbue each child with the ideals of democracy and the inherent worth of the human individual."

Dangers of Mussels, Clams Are Discussed

The annual quarantine of mussels for human consumption has been declared by the State Board of Public Health

"This is to protect everyone in California from the highly toxic poison present in shellfish during the summer and early autumn" said H. L. Blum, M. D., Contra Costa County health officer.

The quarantine established along the entire California coastal shore and including San Francisco Bay will be in effect until October 31.

County residents were also warned to be cautious in the preparation of clams during this period. The clams should be cleaned and washed thoroughly before cooking and only the white meat should be eaten.

The dark spots should be discarded during this season of the year as these are the poison concentrates.

The poison found in plankton which serves as food for mussels and clams is an alkaloid such as strychnine and can prove fatal to persons eating the toxic shellfish. California had five cases of mussel poisoning but no deaths in 1954.

Quarantine warnings covering both mussels and clams will be posted in the coastal and Bay Area counties.

Mussels may be used for bait during the quarantine period but must be broken up and placed in containers plainly marked in big print "For fish bait only, unfit for human consumption."

Area Rapid Transit Called 'Golden Opportunity' Here

Frank H Simon, executive director of the New York-New Jersey Metropolitan Rapid Transit Commission, told directors of the five-county Bay Area Transit District:

"The Bay Area has an opportunity—a golden opportunity—for forward thinking, not restricted by traditional concepts.

"You in the Bay Area have the opportunity to develop a transit system that can be used not only to serve present traffic but as a tool to guide orderly growth and land use, and to abet the development of the entire region."

Simon is the director of the commission which has been investigating means of uniting and improving commuter travel in the New York-New Jersey area. The commission recently recommended to the legislatures of the two states a $500,000,000 plan for a rapid transit loop which could tie together in a unified system the various rapid transit, commuter railroad and bus system which now operate more or less independently.

The recommendations, which call for the new commuter loop to be operated by a two-state public agency, already have been adopted by the New York legislature and are awaiting action by the New Jersey legislature.

Simon pointed out to the five-county district's directors that transit problems in the Bay Area vary from the New York-New Jersey area.

Mental Health Week Brings Local Comment

Last week was observed as Mental Health Week in Contra Costa County.

Dr. George Degnan, director of the county hospital, is also the director of mental health services for the county.

The Board of Superivsors issued a proclamation concerning Mental Health Week, and supporting the program now being conducted.

Members of the association recently attended a dinner in Richmond, and heard a talk by Irving Rosenblatt Jr. on "Are We Winning the Fight Against Mental Disease?"

"Random Target" is concerned with an 11-year-old boy's bullying behavior. Action centers around his parents' realization of the cause.

It is one of a number of plays developed by the National Association for Mental Health and the American Theater Wing.

After the half-hour play, the audience will participate in discussion to be led by Anna Marie Metzgar of the association's discussion leader's group.

The public is invited to attend. On May 28, the premier of "The Room Upstairs" will be held in Pleasant Hill.

They stated that it will be in the Oakland Auditorium arena on Wednesday and will continue with two performances a day through next Sunday.

EBMUD Bond Issue Is Endorsed by Labor

Three key endorsements for Proposition "B", the $252 million East Bay Municipal Utility District water measure on the June 3 ballot, were announced today by Charles P. Howard, general chairman of the Citizens Committee for Water Development.

The endorsements came from the Central Labor Council of Contra Costa County, the Building and Construction Trades Council of Contra Costa County, and the Uptown Association, representing the Oakland central business district.

Lawrence S. Simon, president of the business group declared: "passage of the EBMUD's water bond construction project would prevent any increase in taxes or water rates.

"It is of vital importance to the East Bay area, in view of the growth constantly taking place, that adequate facilities must be constructed to provide an always plentiful supply of water for our increasing population and industrial development."

Howard Reed, business manager of the Building and Construction Trades Council, in urging voters to cast a "Yes" vote on Prop. "B" said, "This 10 year construction program is a must, if the area is to continue to grow in a healthy expanding economy, bringing advantages not only to all individual property owners, but to business and industrial organizations large and small, in which labor has such a large stake."

Hugh Caudel, secretary and business manager of the Central Labor Council, pointed out: "This proposed expenditure for labor and materials will be a boon to labor and business.

But more than that, the assurance of an adequate water supply means economic advantages to the small and large property owners, as well as to present and future business and industrial activity."

Crusade Cash Benefitting Recreation

The United Area Crusade this year is spending half its $10-million-plus budget for recreation programs for boys and girls and for family and child care services, according to a mid-year Report to Contributors.

The report gives an accounting of the Crusade's current $10,490,295 expenditures ($10,330,000 from the 1957 campaign, and $160,295 from past reserves), in San Francisco, Alameda, San Francisco, Alameda, San Mateo, Contra Costa and Marin.

The other half of the Bay Area budget is going for Red Cross, USO, local health services, local units of national health organizations, and for Crusade campaign and administration.

Emmet Solomon, senior vice president of the Crusade, presented the report to the organization's executive committee.

He said, "The dollars and cents totalled here represent record generosity by Bay Area givers—and we are as thankful in May for that generosity as we were in December. Still we must note that the dollar needs of the agencies—as originally assessed by Crusade budgeteers—are only 88 per cent fulfilled by this 1958 budget."

Solomon said the pattern of Crusade support to the various kinds of agencies is about the same as in past years. He explained that Crusade allocations are made by volunteer budget committees to 259 agencies.

County Library Handling 35% More Requests

Of the 61,315 books delivered from Contra Costa Library Headquarters to the 27 branch and station libraries and the Bookmobile during the first nine months of the current fiscal year 1957-58, nearly 20,000 were in response to special requests, according to reports compiled in the office of Mrs. Bertha D. Hellum, County Librarian.

This figure represents an increase of 35.6 per cent over the number of requests received during the same months last year.

Any book in the county library collection of 237,000 volumes, which are kept in rotation among the libraries in the system, is available to any individual by request through any local library.

From July 1957 through March 1958 some 41,000 books were returned from the libraries in the county system for re-distribution, repair, or withdrawal if worn beyond rehabilitation.

During this nine month period 1,128,594 books were borrowed from the 28 libraries for home reading and 93,741 reference questions were answered, increases of 17,3 per cent and 16.8 per cent, respectively, over last year.

Some 30,735 books, 9 per cent more than last year, were cataloged at headquarters, where books for the entire county library system are selected, ordered, cataloged and processed for distribution to the community libraries and the Bookmobile. A total of 99,665 individuals are registered library card holders, 14.4 per cent more than the number registered at the end of March 1957

Double Sessions Reduced by New Classrooms

Double session in Contra Costa County has been reduced, by completion of new classrooms, from 6409 children in October to 5668 in March, County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson said today.

Three districts have discontinued half day session altogther. They are Orinda Union, Pittsburg Unified and Sheldon.

Remaining on double session are Danville Union with 407 children on double session; Lafayette, 498; Mt. Diablo Unified, 1854; Richmond Elementary, 279; San Pablo, 1711; and Walnut Creek, 919, he added.

Of the 5668 children attending school for a half day, 3296 are in the first garde. The remainder are distributed throughout the next three grades.

Double session has been reduced from a high of 14,685 in October, 1949. Wilson explained that for several years before state building loans were made available about one-third of all children in the first six grades in the county were on double session.

Cancer Drive Nearing Goal

The Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society appeared this week to be within ten percent of attaining its 1958 fund raising goal.

Dr. A. R Reinke, president of the Branch announced that the 1958 April Cancer campaign officially has ended and that the organization will depend on mail-in contributions to reach the $55,715 county goal.

Dr. Reinke urged those residents who have not yet mailed in envelopes left by volunteers in the door-to-door drive to do so to help swell the total.

He added, "In those instances where an envelope was not left, we suggest mailing contributions direct to the Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society at 2030 North Main Street, Walnut Creek. The local areas will receive credit toward their quotas from such contributions."

The Society normally receives a number of Memorial Day contributions which can be added to Cancer campaign contributions, Reinke said.

The house-to-house campaign conducted in April raised $50,000 and mail returns are still coming in.

Dr. Reinke stated that the American Cancer Society and its divisions has allocated about $11,000,000 to cancer research for the coming fiscal year.

Lafayette's Dr. Segre Talks of Matter, Bombs

By Fred Hill

We were sitting in comfortable deck-chairs on a lawn which was as well-manicured as that of any golf green. From the hilltop, looking to the east, Lafayette and environs were spread out below us like the miniature towns on a model train layout.

The smell of spring blooms from the garden was in the air and cotton-ball clouds drifted slowly by in the deep blue of the late afternoon sky.

The attractive middle-aged woman sitting next to me was stroking a hefty and contented fluffy ,black cat. Next to her sat her husband, a quiet, meditative man, wearing a plaid wool jacket, brown pin-striped pants, and a comfortable pair of house slippers.

SPRING WAS IN the air and, and, as the poet said, "All's well with the world."

Only not quite.

We were not discussing the sunset, methods of fertilizing lawns or the hew of the sky. We were discussing the potential of a bomb so powerful that if unleashed in our proximity it could sweep away the countryside for almost as far as our eyes could see.

The couple I was sitting with were Emilio Segre, eminent atomic physicist from the University of California, and his wife, Elfriede.

The bomb was a natural topic of conversation since Dr. Segre has been one of the select group of top scientists who had worked at Los Alamos in the perfection of the A-bomb which had brought World War II to it's abrupt end.

SINCE THEN, DR. SEGRE has gained far greater prominence among his colleagues for his pioneering research and discoveries in the bewildering-to-the-uninitiated field of anti-matter. His photographing of an anti-neutron at his Cal laboratory recently brought his work and face to magazine-readers across the land in the form of a full-page write-up in Time Magazine.

"Should the United States stop testing nuclear weapons?" I inquired of the doctor.

"That is very difficult to say . . . there are reasons to stop and reasons to continue." After a pause, he added, "I do believe this: any testing we do should be done underground and not in the open seas."

Much research being done, he said, is to develop the so-called "clean" bomb.

"Is there danger, then, from fall-out from the tests?" I asked.

IMMEDIATE DANGER, the doctor feels, is slight. However, he said, there was the case of the ill-fated Japanese fishing boat "Lucky Dragon" which got too close to the test site several years back. Such an unfortunate accident could concievably happen again. Also, the doctor stated, even if there is the slightest danger to human life from tests, the government should not take that chance and should, therefore test only underground.

"Do you think the Russians were acting alturistically when they announced their decision to stop their nuclear tests or did they just seize on an opportune time for a propaganda move?"

The doctor seemed to be studying his fingers. "What?"

His wife said, "He asked if you think the Russians were sincere in stopping their bomb tests."

"Oh," the doctor replied, "I think that can be compared with someone who has just feasted and then wants to stop someone else from eating when that person is about to sit down to a meal." His reference was to the fact that prior to Russia's announcement that country had just completed an extensive series of H-bomb tests in Siberia.

SCIENTISTS, Dr. Segre commented, are interested in some of the side effects of the bomb tests, which provide an opportunity to observe, for the first time, some physical phenomena. Never before, he said, has science been able to create such heat and pressure.

Dr. Segre and his family have lived in their spacious white frame house, on the lofty end of Crest Road, for the past three years. Recently, heavy rains washed out a section of the road, making it look as if it had been hit by a bomb of pre-World War II proportions, taking a 30-foot-deep chunk out of the road only a few blocks from the home.

Dr. Segre was born in Italy and a trace of his native language still lingers in his speech.

Commenting on his accent, he said, "One time I was talking to an executive from IBM and he asked me, 'Where do you come from?'' I misinterpreted the question and replied, 'From Berkeley.' "

Dr. Segre and his wife have lived in the East Bay area for the past 20 years, the length of time he has been affiliated with the University of California. For the 17 years prior to the family's move to Lafayette, the Segres lived in Berkeley.

BEFORE COMING to this country, Dr. Segre taught at the University of Palermo in Italy and at the University of Rome. His wife, Elfriede, was born in a portion of Germany which is now a part of Poland. Like her husband, the charming Mrs. Segre still has some of the inflections of her native language in her conversation.

The couple were married 28 years ago and have a son, Claudio, now working on an advanced degree in English at Stanford, and two daughters, Fausta, a seventh grade student at Stanley School, and Amelia, a tenth grade student at Acalanes High.

IN ITALY, DR. SEGRE was a close friend and former student of the late Enrico Fermi, who perfected the first chain-reactor at the University of Chicago.

Dr. Segre's time at the university is divided between his highly-important research work in the field of anti-matter and what to him is the equally important task of teaching the nation's college students. A professor of physics, Dr. Segre teaches primarily upper-division undergraduate students and graduate students, a work as close to his heart as his research.

The graying scientist, who walks for the most part unnoticed when in town on a shopping trip, is internationally renowned for his research concerning anti-matter. Two years ago, he journeyed to Russia at the invitation of the Russian Academy of Science for a scientific meeting.

He has travelled extensively in Europe and South America, which both he and wife were enamored with, and this fall, when Dr. Segre takes a year's sabbatical from the university, the Segres will travel in the Orient.

And how do the Segre's like Lafayette?

Well, just fine.

"Except," the doctor said, eyeing the cavity in the earth a few hundred yards away, "for the floods."

New Buildings Take 1/3 Of Cash Spent by Students

Contra Costa County's 34 school districts spent $65,159,328 in 1956-57. One third of it was spent on new buildings to help house the 93,000 students enrolled last year.

Of the $21,701,714 that went for school construction, the biggest share was spent by the three unified districts—Mt Diablo, Pittsburg and Antioch. The amount was $9,886,386, which compares with $8,961,206 in building done by the 24 elementary districts and $2,854,122 by high school districts.

Largest single type of expenditure was from the general fund, said County Superintendent B. O. Wilson. This totaled $38,033,456 spent by all schools for operating expenses — teachers' salaries, building maintenance, supplies, etc.

OTHER CATEGORIES were as follows: bond redemption, $3,663,583; cafeteria, $1,546,199; and child care, $214,376. Richmond alone operates a childr care program.

Wilson said that of the $21,701,714 that went into school construction, $13,738,235 came from the state loan funds and the remainder from local bonds.

An indeterminated amount of general fund money was also spent on school construction by some of the districts but is not segregated out in the annual financial report made by the State Department of Education, Wilson concluded.

Also, Contra Costa County's 34 school districts had 6252 more students in March this year, than a year ago. This is a gain of 6.8 per cent. The total for all grades was 97,650

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT B. O. Wilson described the rate of gain as "Slightly higher than in the recent past but lower than in the years immediately after World War II."

The March figure is down 801 from the all-time high of 98,451 in October. Wilson said that a decline in enrollment between fall and spring is normal in Contra Costa County.

Contra Costa Junior College District, San Ramon Valley area and Moraga District experienced the most rapid increase from March 1957 to March 1958.

Junior College, 2167 to 2792, or 29 per cent.

SAN RAMON Valley — San Ramon Elementary District, 53 to 70, or 32 per cent; Alamo, 711 to 790, or 11 per cent; Danville Union, 1508 to 1616, or 7 per cent; San Ramon Valley Union High School, 647 to 705, or 9 per cent.

Moraga, 96 to 125, or 30 per cent.

Acalanes Union High School District and Mt. Diablo Unified led the districts in high school increases — Acalanes up from 2633 to 3099, 18 per cent, and Mt. Diablo 6282 to 7448, 9 per cent.

The county's rate of total high school enrollment growth was 8 per cent and the elementary, 6 per cent.

One of the reasons for an upturn in the rate of increase, explained the superintendent, is the fact that the tide has turned in the Richmond Elementary District and enrollment is again increasing after several years of decline.

The figures are 12,792 in March of 1957 and 13,520 this year, or six per cent

Hamlet Theology To be Discussed

"The Theology of Hamlet" is the provocative title of a lecture to be presented by Erwin Straus, M.D. at Saint Mary's College Tuesday under the auspices of the Committee on Lectures, Art and Music.

A lecturer of wide experience, Dr. Straus is noted for the wit and charm with which he invests the genuine scholarship of his talks.

Originally from Vienna, he is presently clinical associate in psychiatry at the University of Louisville School of Medicine, Lecturer in Psychiatry at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, and Director of Professional Education and Research for the United States Veteran's Administration at Lexington.

The lecture will begin at 8 in De La Salle Lounge on the Saint Mary's campus. The public is invited to attend. There will be no admission charge.

Four Local Artists In Macy Show

Four local artists have gained additional recognition of their talents by being selected to exhibit in a "Discovery Art Show" being sponsored by Macy's Department Store in San Francisco from May 22 to 29.

Michael Czaja, Walnut Creek, and Steve Glovna, Lafayette; will exhibit paintings. Mildred Simon of Lafayette and Ruth Howard of Walnut Creek have mosaics in round on display.

All of the artists are active members of Valley Art Center. Twenty-six art groups have filed entries, potters and metal workers being added to give greater dimension to the complete contingent of painters accepted

Unique in its "discovery" there, the display will include the works of unknown but promising artists alongside of those of professional repute. In an effort to cut a swath across all contemporary approaches to art flourishing in the Bay Area, no style nor medium was either banned or requested.

"From the avant garde experimentors to the realists, from champions of acrylic oils to watercolor, etchers to printmakers, Macy's opened its auditorium and said, 'Bring work representative of your group.' "

SECOND SECTION

ORINDA SUN

Friday, May 9, 1958

Dear Supervisors: We Would Like to Know Why . . .

THE THE HONORABLE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, CONTRA COSTA COUNTY:

Messrs. Ivan Goyak, chairman; Ray Taylor, Mel Nielsen, W. G. Buchanan, Joseph Silva:

Nearly a year ago the 1956-57 Contra Costa County Grand Jury released its report.

In one section of this report, the Grand Jury recommended close study of numerous questionable activities of the Contra Costa County District Attorney's Office.

The Grand Jury report said, in part:

". . . the committee heard expressions of concern from a great many quarters with respect to the policy of the District Attorney of maintaining a private law practice and of his permitting his deputies to have private law practices.

"A VARIETY OF criticisms of this practice were voiced including the following:

"1. Possibility of questionable legal solicitations: Citizens who seek the district attorney's assistance may wind up as clients of a deputy. When a case does not come within the county's jurisdiction, it is possible for the deputy to solicit the case for his private practice.

"2. Possible conflicts of interest: In their private practices the district attorney and his deputies become associated with many people. Some of these may violate the law. When this occurs there may be a tendency to minimize the charges; perhaps accepting a plea to a lesser offense. In civil cases involving the county and a former client there may be some tendency to be sympathetic."

Gentlemen, since the time that report was issued, the statements which appear above had been printed numerous times by The Sun and other newspapers in the county.

HOWEVER, THE Board of Supervisors has not only failed to take action, but it has never mentioned publicly that such recommendations from the Grand Jury exist.

The board, gentlemen, has never made public recognition of the fact that there is a problem, that recommendations have been offered, that the board has considered the problem, or anything else concerning the district attorney's office.

Now, suddenly, with the district attorney facing opposition for the first time, the chairman of the Board of Supervisors praises District Attorney Francis Collins in the supervisorial chambers in a public meeting, announces his support of the incumbent and sends out press releases, and then calls for a study of our district attorney's office as compared with other county district attorney's offices in the matter of cost and efficiency.

OF COURSE, the Board of Supervisors also ignored completely the Pleasant Hill Civic Council's recommendations and letter asking that private practice in the district attorney's office be abolished.

Now the Pleasant Hill Civic Council is an honorable organization, and it is composed of representatives of thousands of homeowners who have a right to voice their opinions through their representatives.

They have a right to have these opinions heard by their elected officials, you, gentlemen, of the board of supervisors.

IT IS DEPLORABLE, to say the least, that the report of the civic council should be dropped by the board of supervisors without a comment.

And of course, when the members of the board concur with the public statement of the chairman that a comparative study of the office and similar offices be made, then it becomes the official action of the board just as surely as if a formal vote were taken.

Let us consider what this report will mean.

You, as a board of supervisors, instructed County Administrator Desmond Teeter to compile the report. It appears to us as if this report would take a good deal of analysis, especially in the comparison of cost figures. The people of this county, we are sure, will be watching closely to see when this report is issued.

Will it be rushed through so that it can be represented just before election time?

IT HAS ALWAYS been of interest to see when reports are forthcoming from the board. We, for instance, are still waiting for a report from the pinball committee which was formed some time ago.

What will this report mean? How can you compare costs when you don't know what our district attorney's office is costing us? The district attorney's office does not have to requisition stationery, they can ask for it. Some of their secretarial help comes from a county pool. It would be quite a job, it seems, to correlate costs with other counties under these circumstances.

WE WOULD suggest, gentlemen, that a thorough study of our own office be made, possibly along the lines suggested by the Grand Jury, before we tackle comparative offices, if there be any such.

But almost more important than this. This report will not solve the problems inherent in our district attorney's office as it now operates. These problems have been pointed out time and again by The Sun, other newspapers in the county, and now by the Pleasant Hill Civic Council.

Also, since your chairman, Mr. Goyak, has publicly announced his support fo the incumbent district attorney, it appears that this whole thing has just become a political plaything.

While the report that you have asked for may be good, and certainly does no harm, it does not answer the questions posed by the Grand Jury or the civic council.

Furthermore, it appears that not only is your chairman playing politics, but you members of the board are going right along doing the same thing.

Since you concurred on this report, it is to be assumed that you share the opinions of the chairman of the board.

Moreover, we question the use of the supervisorial chambers as a sounding board in which the incumbent district attorney attempts to justify his position.

DURING THE PAST year he has appeared before the board only a handful of times, and his appearances in past years have been just as scarce as they have recently.

We recommend, gentlemen, that the closets be cleaned out at home before we compare them with those of our neighbors.

We further recommend that the chambers of county government not be used as a political sounding board.

The SUN.

Junior Art Center Museum Opens Saturday

Saturday from 7 to 9 p.m., the Junior Guild of The Junior Center of Art and Science presented a Museum Opening in honor of the new members of

The invitational party culminated the membership drive. Various displays were exhibited at this time including paintings and sculpture done by the Children's Art class, marionettes, and costumes and settings used in the Children's Theatre productions. The purpose of the Museum Opening was to acquaint the new members with the many artistic endeavors of The Junior Center of Art and Science.

Saturday a May Festival was presented by the Oakland Recreation Department at the Mosswood Recreation Center at Broadway and MacArthur.

The Junior Center of Art and Science will also participate in the festival as will the sponsors of the Center—the Art League, Children's Theatre, Junior League and Junior Guild.

In the morning the group conducted tours of the Museum pointing out the various displays. The children who are enrolled in the art classes at The Junior Center participated in the clay and painting classes. There was a puppet exhibit and an "Art in Action program.

Pat Gets Lulled -- Lassitude After 20 Years of Marriage

By PAT PENDING

I dunno! After being married for nigh onto 20 years (to the same gal) a guy sorta gets lulled into lassitude. He actually begins to believe that he can half-way estimate what he may or may not run into when he comes home of an evening.

If he has been a bad boy, he can expect either the silent treatment (which is the worst of all, believe me!) or a good, consistent tongue lashing where it just ain't no use answering back at all! Move over, Rover!

NOW, WHEN A GUY has a desk (like me) and uses the W. C. Field's filing system (of which, I will explain a bit later) it comes as quite a shock to arrive at the family homestead and find that the better half has succumbed to Spring Cleaning Fever.

Actually, what caused it was that she was hunting for the address of a man to whom I was supposed to have returned a book last January.

Now, friends, the W. C. Field's filing system is quite complicated. When instituted, it demands that alien hands refrain from disturbing it in any way.

You see, with the Field's system, one just keeps piling pertinent papers o ntop of ones desk through the years. Having an intimate knowledge of the approximate depth of a certain desired paper, it is a simple operation for one to run a finger down the stack and select the proper sheet with a minimum of physical effort. Imagine the frustration resultant should someone shuffle the deck!

I ARRIVED HOME last night to find the entire contents of my desk (including my Field's filing system on the top) strewn on the dining room table. Why? My wife (in hunting for the aforementioned address) had found two empty drawers! This intrigued her.

She began infiltrating with the result that she discovered duplicate copies of Income Tax returns dating back to 1942 plus cancelled checks even older. In addition, she found old newspaper clips that would have been tossed out of modern newspaper morgues long ago.

She made a decision! The mess would have to be cleaned up!

SO NOW, I'm trying to retain a part of the fetishes I've kept all these years. There's a certain nostalgic something about a cancelled check for $5,000 — a symbol of one time affluence. I've been forced to consign to the wastebasket such valuable keepsakes as old write-ups of USC-Notre Dame football games; flying saucer reports; and the girl-hood of Silky Sullivan't mother.

The debris has been disposed of and there are THREE empty drawers and I will be forced to re-institute my W. C. Field's filing system. All the notes that I had on certain officials of the county are destroyed (you're welcome!)

Here's a tip for the Collins opposition:

On innumerable power poles along the back roads gremlins have posted signs saying:

"Re-elect Collins as District Attorney."

It would be a simple matter to print a sign with a large DON'T and tack said sign directly above! Inexpensive too!

Burton PTA Circus Set

May 24 is the date for Burton School's second Fair sponsored by its P.T.A. and held at Burton School.

The Fair this year has a Circus theme. There will be clowns, tractor and fire engine rides, cartoon movies, and many different booths.

There will be games with prizes and a make-up booth.

Circus viewers will see doll clothing, aprons, toys, books, and records. Also there will be a Country Store, a Green Thumb booth, and white elephants galore.

Letters to The Editor

SCHOOL TALK

Dear Editor

Since World War II we in the United States have spent close to $500 billion on defense and we have not grumbled too much as the huge chunk has been deducted from each pay check.

Public schools, belonging to each community, have to be supported by taxpayers in each community. The rising cost of materials, etc., has made it imperative for us to add more tax money for the operation of schools and other services we wish to have maintained at an efficient level, such as police and fire protection.

The schools should not be given any huge amounts of money unless the public is satisfied that every dollar requested by the Board of Trustees is earmarked for a certain need.

The public should attend more board meetings to ask questions on where the money is going and why. But once the answers are satisfactorily given, then it is our duty to support the board!

The public should visit their schools more often and ask questions about the curriculum, etc.

If we don't support our schools then we are in a weak position to criticize the board as our elected representatives because we have not been positive in our criticism.

The military is granted billions upon request — the schools do not have the lobbyists in the category of generals and admirals.

TOM KENDALL

GOOD STORY

Dear Editor:

May I take this opportunity to thank you for your very descriptive column on Bob Davis, polio victim, in your April 18 issue.

Mrs. Davis and I feel that Norman Colby's report on Bob is very "down to earth" and especially well written for information taken over the phone.

We are of the opinion that Bob is being voted in as a member of the Pleasant Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce, which will be a great morale builder for him and will give him outside interests, which is so needed to keep up his morale.

It would be a pleasure to have you "drop in" on Bob at your leisure time and see for yourself this new way of life for him, and his unique telephone setup.

HARRY DAVIS

OUR LETHARGIC VOTERS

Dear Editor

I have a few words to direct to the people of the Lafayette School District:

On May 1, the PTA of the Lafayette Elementary School held a candidates' night for everyone to come and hear the gentlemen who are running for the school board. The nine candidates did not outnumber the audience—but it was close.

These men are donating their time in an effort to serve this community. They are remarkably well-informed about the subject of schools and the problems of education. They have views and philosophies that will affect our children. It is the duty of every parent to hear these men speak.

I cannot believe the small audience was due to lack of interest, but if this is so, we could, at least, show these men the courtesy of listening to how they plan to direct our community educational policies. Who knows, the children who will be educated by these men's policies may be your own.

As announced in the Lafayette Sun, we will have another opportunity to hear these men speak on Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Town Hall. Will you be there?

STEPHANIE CYR

DISTRICT THANKS

For Whom Are You Going To Vote for Sheriff?

By Herman Silverman

Coming to work this morning, I swore that this week's column would not be devoted to the coming election. For weeks I have intended to write about several outings that Eleanor and I have gone with the kids. But that June 3 election is only a few weeks away and there is so much to do and say.

Okay, Mrs. Jones, your tired of hearing about politics! But for whom are you going to vote for sheriff, assessor, judge, attorney general, governor and all the other races? For whom will you vote on May 20 in the school trustee election?

Yes, Mrs. Jones and you too, Mr. Smith, these elections are important to you, to your pocketbook and to your future. Are you willing to pay more taxes for inefficient, dishonest government? If so, don't worry about who to vote for. Go into the polling booth and go eenie, meenie, minie, mo and put an X any old place. If you are interested in good government—read, study, attend candidates' nights.

This is a tough one:

For whom are you going to vote for sheriff?

Many people have asked me this in the past few months. And some had an amused gleam in their eyes, for they well remember that The Sun energetically supported Sheriff Harry Brown four years ago.

I told these people the very same thing I have told the sheriff's candidates: The Sun will support who we think is the best man and we have not yet decided. We will look at the two candidates who qualify at the June primary election and then decide. Meanwhile, we will observe the candidates carefully, see who is backing whom, learn as much about them as we can.

This is one way of saying that The Sun is not committed to Sheriff Brown because we supported him four years ago. The Sun does not believe that it is a sin to change our mind over the years. If Harry wins one of the spots in the primary, we will weigh his qualifications against his opponent and will support whichever we think is the better candidate.

I talked this over with both Harry and Dolly Brown in my office some weeks ago. I told this to the other candidates. (Ray Stoffels is the only one I haven't talked to.)

There are no regrets . . .

But let me make this very clear: The election of Harry Brown four years ago was good. If we had to do it over again, we would do exactly what we did. Before Brown, county law enforcement was a mess; through the years crime and gambling were rampant. The Senate Crime Committee and The State Crime Commission had focused a spotlight on Contra Costa County's situation. Brown's opponent was the heir to all this. He was supported by the political forces that had made this possible.

Backed by a tremendous grass roots movement, Harry Brown was the challenger and he won.

Brown cleaned up the county. No organized gambling has existed since his elections. I believe Harry Brown is 100 per cent honest. He cannot be bought, threatened, coerced. His office offers good law enforcement—not the best, but good. He would have done a better job had the other county officials not opposed him at every turn.

On the other side of the ledger

On the other hand, Harry caused much of this lack of cooperation because he fought the other officials. I would say the responsibility for lack of cooperation can be equally divided.

Harry Brown is no diplomat. He does not know when to be quiet. He says the wrong things. He lacks a sense of public relations and often uses poor judgment in dealing with the board of supervisors and others.

Further, Harry is not a good administrator. The past four years have proved this. He does not get along well with his staff. This, too, is not all his fault. Some of the deputies have made it mighty rough on him. Some would not forgive him for ruining their "deals." For years, there must have been "payoffs" and this ends when Brown was elected. Others objected because their former colleague suddenly became their boss.

Now, all this must be weighed against one important fact—Harry Brown is honest and runs a clean county. I would not trade him for a super-efficient administrator—who is not honest.

What do we do next?

The next question: Is there a candidate in the race better qualified than Brown?

The No. 1 challenger is Ronald Orin, chief of police of Concord. Orin is the only candidate with proven administrative ability as head of a law enforcement agency. People speak highly of the Concord police department and the men Orin has chosen as subordinates. Orin, however, was a strong supporter of B. W. Richardson, the "machine's candidate" for sheriff in the last election and there are some other questions as to who is backing Orin this time.

The surprise contender is Sheriff Sergeant Walt Young of Lafayette. His is the strongest campaign. Lots of expensive signs, mailing pieces, and other materials are barraging the voter. This is not a criticism of Young because he has lined up strong financial backing. As far as I can learn, the backing is good and clean. His support comes from Walter Boysen of Orinda, Lester Hink of Lafayette and other big wheels who apparently are raising $5,000 to $10,000 for the campaign. I am happy to see important and responsible citizens take an interest in county politics.

Some months ago I didn't think Young had a possible chance to qualify in June. Today he is running a strong third and could very well be in one of the two top spots. Young is personable. He has been in the sheriff's department a long time. I have had several people tell me he is completely honest. His major drawback is complete lack of administrative evperience or background. As a leader, he is an unknown quantity.

Two more on the ballot

Sheriff Detective Charles Myhre of Pleasant Hill is a graduate of Cal's School of Criminology. He has had some administrative experience as a naval officer in World War II and in the Korean War and has been in the sheriff department since 1949. He is likable and takes a very serious approach to law enforcement. Myhre, however, has no strong backing and has little chance to win.

Last on the list is Sheriff Inspector Ray Stoffels of Concord. I do not know Stoffels but I do know that he is one of the Old Guard, one of former Sheriff Long's key men. Although against the civil service law, he campaigned viciously four years ago against Brown while on county time. For these and other reasons, I would not vote for Stoffels. He has weak support and little chance to win.

Most observers think the race is between Brown and Orin. We shall see.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

If you didn't attend the Junior Lark's luncheon-fashion show "May Day" at El Nido last Saturday you missed a real treat, for it was a most refreshing afternoon. All of the tables were shared by adults, teenagers and even small young ladies who acted—oh!—so grown up.

The industrious hostesses did a noutstanding job of decorating. Especially interesting was a large gilded tree which stood on the of beads, party bags and all manner of exciting trivia. Mrs. Jewel stage. Hanging from it's limbs were colorful silk scarfs, long ropes Sederholm played lovely organ music throughout the afternoon.

Poised and radiant Carolyn Morrill was the commentator and general chairman and looked stunning in a black and white checked chemise which was accented with white collar and cuffs and a large black bow tie at the throat. President, Judy Morrison, was everywhere as she checked details, greeted guests and then modeled several ensembles.

Lots of oustanding costumes

There were so many outstanding costumes—one which brought an especially loud round of applause was worn by Mrs. Vivian Farrell, one of the three adult models. It was a printed chiffon in shades of greens and blues. A wide powder blue chiffon cumberbund encircled her waist and a tiny, reversed bolere jacket coul dbe "shed" for more formal affairs.

Some of the spectators were Mrs. Edward Ageno and her lovely daughter, Maralyn; Mrs. Don Campbell (looking "just right" in a beige shantung suit with white accessories), Winnie Stanley and Mary Sibley—a charming duo in mint green outfits, Marge Harris in a stunning black and white print, Dot Fibush in a summery blue print, and Terry Ligon in a green linen chemise and huge orange straw cartwehel—a large orange rose sparking the dress's neckline.

All of the young guests looked so chic and NEW. Three of these were Jane Bonneau (a gal of many travels, I understand), Cheri Peterson and honey-blonde Anne Boaz who wore the best looking chalk white sheath topped by a lipstick-red coat. Maryette (Mrs. L. B.) Capra was hostess to a large group of family and friends and, wouldn't you KNOW it, her slim, glamorous daughter was the recipient of a series of treatments at Slenderella. Never fails!

On Wednesday, Thelma (Mrs. J. Aubrey) Sweet of Orinda invited a large number of friends to luncheon at the Orinda Country Club. Following lunch—her guests trooped into the library for bridge. Looking STRIKING in all red was Jean (Mrs. Joe) Downs and wearing a stunning turban of the same blues was Peggy (Mrs. Ralph) Ong.

Just to name a few of the other guests: the Mmes. Henry Donovan, Joseph A. Cianciarulo, Walter Boysen, F. J. Federighi, Don Hucke, Hugh Mac Intyre, William McNevin, and James Sharp.

Nice trip along the sagebrush route

The Albion Harmons have returned from a much enjoyed and educational motor trip. They were accompanied by Mrs. Harmon's mother, Mrs. Alice Wood, and their children, Carol and Jay. Weather was perfect, they reported, AFTER they left California! At Las Vegas they took a quick "look-see" at the fabulous "strip" and town and then went on out to Hoove rDam for a tour and some boating. The Grand Canyon was the next stop followed by a visit in Phoenix. In Tuscon the Harmons visited with a cousin and then went on to "Old Tuscon" which turned out to be the highlight of their trip.

Seems that for years this spot has been used for western movies and is alive with background material which you wold probably recognize. Especially interesting was the Desert Museum which features all sorts of desert cactus, animals, birds and wild flowers. Just so happened that John Wayne and Frank Sinatra were on hand for—yes, a new western. Before returning to their Orinda home the Harmons made a stop at Nogales which the children loved. More recently they gave a dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Richard McKirahan who are being transferred to Chicago.

Travelling a bit farther from home were Helen and Clifford Buhles of Lafayette. This was the Buhle's second trip to the Islands and they are already planning a third for, naturally, the yhave lost their hearts to that Pacific paradise. Helen and Clif stayed first during this three weeks vacation) at the "Reef" and then were joined by friends from San Jose. From there they went to Maui where they headkuartered at the "Hana-Maui" hotel. Long and heavenly days were spent on the beach for this foursome particularly enjoy the swimming and water sports which just cannot be equaled.

And from sagebrush to polar bears!

Even farther from home are Helen and Stuart Loe who took the Polar Route to Copenhagen. They are spending two weeks at the Brussels Fair and then will tour England by automobile. When they return to New York the Loes will fly to Dallas, Texas, to attend the Rotarry International Convention. Stuart is the new president of the Walnut Creek Rotary Club.

Does this talk of travel make you yearn for a trip? Young Clifford Abberham is not only yearning for one but is doing something about it. In fact, he is organizing a tour—the "Abberham United Air Lines Tour" to the Islands in August and is hoping that you or your teenage youngsters might be interested in joining a group which will visit three of the Hawaiian Islands. Clifford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Abberham, of Orinda.

The Walnut Creek Women's Club has done it again! A perfectly delightful afternoon was spent last Thusrday by members and guests as the yvisited six completely different types of homes in our area.

Following the house tour the ladies assembled at the Women's Club for a bit of "Art in Paris." A group of well known artists exhibited a fine collection of paintings and tea and the MOST scrumptious french pastries were served by the members.

NOW, about the tea table. I've called three people to try to get a description of it with the same results—INDESCRIBABLE! We all know what an artist Mrs. Edward Counter is and what would the organizations around these parts do with her? Apparently she outdid herself on this arrangement and I, for one, feel cheated that I was unable to attend.

You'd just have to see it . . .

At any rate—to TRY to describe—the long table was covered with a silver lame cloth upon which two three-branched silver candelabra with pale pink tapers.

The centerpiece was a tall, tall pedestalled silver bowl filled with a solid mass of pale pink carnations which grew into deeper toned pjnk roses from which emerged blua frenc hiris. These blooms were also grouped about the bases of the pedestal and candelabra.

All three informants agreed upon one word — ELEGANT. Mrs. Ernest Holman, the president, must have been griefed for she seemed a part of the color scheme in a shimmery, summery pink frock. A few others enjoying the affair were the Mmes. E. Schimbor, Sam Adkins, Robert Samuels, John Hanby, George Fox, Robert Freeman, Arthur Beran and A. A. Nichols.

The "Flickers had a busy afternoon Saturday with "Spring in the Netherlands"—a dutch auction. Will have the details for you next week.

Myhre Outlines Sheriff Platform

Detective Charley Myhre, candidate for the office of Sheriff, issued the following campaign platform today. "I am in the race for Sheriff as the best qualified candidate. Here is my platform:

1. Unstable leadership. Never before in the history of this county have three members from the Sheriff's Department opposed the incumbent for election.

2. Inadequate Training Program. At present all training is conducted by outside agencies.

3. Improved Juvenile Program. Plans must be made now to combat the existing and what will be even more serious delinquency problem when the grammar school population of today becomes the teenagers of tomorrow.

4 Inadequate Records. The heart of any police organization is its record system. The records of the Sheriff's Department are completely inadequate to assist the investigator in criminal investigation work.

5. Non-existing crime lab and technician. The Sheriff's Department needs a crime lab and a qualified criminalist to assist the investigator in examination of physical evidence, identifying responsible criminals, and for court presentation of evidence.

6. Inadequate patrol protection. Part of this problem is the improper assignment of personnel.

In a statement urging voters' support at the June 3 Primary Election, Ripley said:

"IT HAS BEEN my experience as a County officer to know that Tom McBride, as counsel for the Board of Supervisors, gave unstintingly of his time to problems of our growing County. He was resourceful in his capacity in researching the law and seeking out the intelligent answer to the many problems confronting the Board. And time has shown that his legal answers were the correct ones, and that the County has benefited as a result.

"This first-hand knowledge of the man has made me willing and ready to serve as chairman of the committee backing his candidacy for judgeship. Acceptance of this chairmanship is my endorsement."

Enjoy— MORE POWER in your home!

Many families today are enjoying their homes only half as much as they should because of skimpy, outdated wiring.

To handle the two dozen to four dozen major and minor electric appliances in a modern American home, you need 100-ampere service with a basic capacity of 24,000 watts. Your home now may have only 30-ampere service, with a basic capacity of 3,600 watts, or 60-ampere service with a basic capacity of 14,500 watts. The cost of bringing your home up to standard modern HOUSEPOWER of 100-ampere service depends on how much wiring you have now, and where it is located.

The cost of adding enough wiring for modern HOUSEPOWER is always a good buy. You can add 100% extra enjoyment for only about 2% extra in the cost of a home under construction. The cost of modernizing wiring in existing homes naturally runs higher, but can be done on convenient terms as low as $5 to $10 per month.

If you are a home owner, or remodeling, or building, call an electrical contractor using qualified electricians, and DOUBLE YOUR HOME ENJOYMENT RIGHT NOW WITH REAL HOUSEPOWER!

DVAL Track Meet Slated for Today

Acalanes, Priates, Devils Picked Tops by Dopesters

Today is the Diablo Valley Athletic League track meet—the place Antioch High School.

Trials were run off last Wednesday on the same oval —with the Bees winding up the field events.

Finals are today and the dopsters have been hard at it in an attempt to pick the winners.

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

IN THE VARSITY division it looms as a race between Acalanes and Pittsburg. The Dons have great all around team dept for meets with the exception of the sprints.

The Dons salvation could be that Diablo, Pittsburg and Pacifica will split up the points in the 100 yard dash and the 220 yard run.

Another big question mark is the hurdle races. John Pratt of Pleasant Hill, Ernie Fox of Acalanes and Vince Darone of Pittsburg are all capable of winning.

Pratt has had a bad ankle incurred in the Martinez Relays when he hit a hurdle. A lot will depend on how well he does.

THE DONS BEST chance for a flock of points in one event apears to be in the pole vault where Dave Williamson, George Hearne and Mike Latone could go 1-2-3 although not necessarily in that order as each has taken his turn in winning from 12-6 and up.

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Pitt's big point getter could, and probably will be, John Galli who makes a habit of winning both the discus and shot.

Dave Weill of Las Lomas has come to the front in the discus—making the best toss of the year in Northern California—when he won the event in the Acalanes-Las Lomas-Miramonte meet last Friday. One of the outstanding performers and probably the best bet to cop two firsts is Dixon Farmer of Miramonte.

He is in a class by himself and as a junior looms as the nearest thing to a cinch in the 440 yard run which is a dash for him the way he runs it—well under 50 flat.

HE IS ALSO IN the 180 lows and could well be a winner unless he hits a hurdle which is unlikely the way he runs them.

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

To sum it all up the meet has a lot of "if" to it.

Another "IF" is if Dennis Brady recovers from the measles to win the 880 for Acalanes.

GOING OUT ON a lim I'll pick Acalanes for first with 56 points, Pitt second with 53 and a scramble for third between Diablo and Antioch.

In the Bees its a struggle between Diablo and Pittsburg — the dark horse Acalanes — who might have won if Antioch hadn't shown so many outstanding performers.

Track Dominates Sports Picture For Coming Week

Big events of the week are the Diablo Valley League Track meet finals to be held at Antioch this afternoon. Qualifying trials were held last Wednesday.

Swimming, North Coast Diving, Santa Clara.

Tomorrow—

TUESDAY, MAY 13.

Don Batsmen Rap Rams 5-1

The Acalanes Dons were "on the beam" on Thursday, May 1, and the Pleasant Hill Rams were "off." The result, an Acalanes 5-1 win.

The game played at Pleasant Hill found Acalanes and the Rams in a 0-0 deadlock at the end of four innings of play.

In the top of the 5th, the Dons scored four runs when centerfielder Don Lippert singled, stole second and came in on Don Nelson's rifle single past first. Tom Larshied relieved Dick Burham on the mound was met with a single the bat of Gary Hansen and Nelson went to 3rd. George McMeans hit a flyin right and when it was dropped Nelson scored.

Dave Bojarsky squeezed Hansen home and McMeans went to third, scoring on wild pitch.

The Rams scored a lone run in the 6th when Bill Locatelli singled and scored standing up when Bob Serra doubled to left, and Aacalanes came back with the game's final run when Bojarsky was on via a fielder's choice, stole second, advanced on Lon Cassos' long fly to right and came in on a fielder error.

Acalanes had six hits to 5 for Pleasant Hill.

Phil Leal started on the mound for Acalanes and was relieved in the second with two down by Mike Kritcher who went the rest of the way. Bojarsky did the receiving.

Dons Take 3-Way Home Track Meet

The Acalanes Dons racked up varsity and Bee wins in a three-way track meet held at the Acalanes oval last Friday.

In the varsity meet, Acalanes swept to the win with 89 points, Las Lomas had 28 and Miramonte 23.

Some outstanding performances marked the meet with Dave Weill of Las Lomas throwing the best in Northern Cailfornia this season when he won the discus at 138-8½.

Leo MacFarlane (Acalanes) copped the mile in 4:42:8.

A stadium mark fell when Art Dalbey (LL) won the high jump at 6-1½. Other top marks were George Hearne (A) 12'6" in the pole vault and Ernie Fox's (A) 15.2 in the 120 highs.

Dixon Farmer was on schedule as he won the 440 with an ex-new stadium record and won the 180 lows in 19.9.

In the 880, Dennis Brady (A) set a fast pace to win in his season's best at 2:00.6.

C. C. Sixty-four California contractors played in the golf tourney, a feature of the three-day convention hosted by Central California Chapter, Associated General Contractors.

The Pleasant Hill Rams copped a league tennis win over Acalanes on Thursday, May 1, when they stroked their way to 5-2 win.

Match results were as follows:

John Cavanaugh (PH) def. John Freeman (A) 7-5, 6-1.

Marines Ready to Tackle New Plan--Western Rodeo

The U.S. Naval Ammunition Depot will sponsor an authentic western rodeo, it was announced by Marine Lieutenant Colonel Fraser E. West, commanding officer of the Marine Barracks at the naval facilitiy.

Colonel West, rodeo director, listed the event for the Memorial Day weekend (May 30-31- June 1). It will be presented at the Contra Costa Trail Ride Grounds between Pleasant Hill and Concord, he said.

Three afternoon performances are tentatively scheduled at the grounds the proceeds from which will be donated to the Navy Relief Fund, an organization which assists dependent families of naval and Marine personnel in need.

Colonel West, a veteran producer of nearly a dozen similar shows during his career with the Leathernecks, expects a record turnout for the rodeo and mentioned that he believed it would be one of the first efforts of its kind ever staged in Contra Costa County.

The Marine officer went on to point out that contestants from all over California were expected to participate in the many events presently scheduled. "Participation is open to any amateur rider, civilian or military," he said, "whose got guts enough to straddle a wild bronc."

Bare-back and saddle bronc riding, brahman bull riding, as well as bull-dogging team and calf roping are some of the rodeo highlights the colonel listed.

"In addition to the rodeo events," the Marine said, "a big arena show will take place during each performance. This will feature the western set-type 'shoot 'em up' that so many rodeo fans have enjoyed in the past shows I've produced."

A Hollywood western star now is in the process of being signed to headline the arena show, West said. but failed to disclose the name. He cited the fact that several western actors are being considered by a Marine liason office in Hollywood for possible participation in the rodeo.

Hardtops to Roll On Speedway

Broadway WALNUT CREEK FUN FAIR!

Coming! Thursday - Friday - Saturday May 15 - 17

Come to the Fun Fair for Rides, Clowns, Favors

What in this world do children enjoy the most? Clowns? Monkey and organ grinder? Puppet show? Or perhaps a ride on a stagecoach? Balloons? Merry-go-round rides? Free popcorn?

You guessed it! Children like 'em all, but it's not very often they get the chance to combine all those fun makers into one occasion!

Their big chance is coming.

THE BROADWAY FUN FAIR will be held for three days, starting Thursday, May 15, at the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek. All shows and favors are free.

Laurel Junior Branch is selling Polak Bros. Circus tickets in a circus booth at Broadway.

"Without a doubt, it will be the most amazing, stupendous, terrific celebration in Broadway's history," proclaimed George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

"Every man, woman and child in the area is cordially invited—and especially the children. The kids will have the most fun—but mother and dad will also enjoy the Fun Fair," Webster said.

"THE BROADWAY Merchants Association has been planning the Fun Fair for five months, and we are all excited about it," he added.

They have arranged to give away thousands of gas-filled baloons

Kids will receive free, candied popcorn packages Friday night and Saturday (May 16 and 17) and free rides on a stage coach Saturday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Free merry-go-round tickets will be given to children.

"We are proud to be able to present Peppi, the great clown; Willie the Monkey, along with Roger Cooney and his Hurdy-Gurdy organ; and the Hestwood Puppet Show," said Sal Blasquez, committee member.

He explained that Peppi has been a favorite with children for many years.

WIlIE'S GYRATIONS in capturing coins for his organ master are always laughable. They will stroll around Broadway Shopping Center Thursday, Friday, Friday night and Saturday, May 15-17.

The Hestwood puppets have been featured on television and movies. Mr. Hestwood's "Little People" are known everywhere. The Puppet shows will be presented Friday, May 16, at 7 and 9 p.m. and Saturday, 11 a.m and 2 p.m.

The festive occasion will be highlighted by circus posters, flags and giant ballons.

"We hope that you and your children will enjoy the Fun Fair. I know I will," Webster said.

WOW!! ROGER, THE CLOWN and Willie, the Monkey, will be featured at the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 15-17. Willie of course, will have with him his famous Hurdy-Gurdy organ

Justice Court Enough—Walker

"The present Justice Court of the Walnut Creek Judicial District is adequate and economical, and an increase in the cost of operation by up-grading to a Municipal Court cannot be justified at this time," said George V. Walker, Lafayette attorney and a candidate for the Judgeship of the Justice Court of the Walnut Creek Judicial District.

The possible up-grading of the Walnut Creek Court has been discussed by some of the candidates for this office.

THE JURISDICTIONAL limit of $500 as existing in the Walnut Creek Court, which is presently self-supporting, need not be increased to a limit of $3000, as the Concord Municipal Court adequately and efficiently serves the total area served by both Courts in the $500 to $3000 range in civil suits, Walker said.

The Concord Court, with much higher costs for the Judge, clerks and for filing fees, is not yet self-supporting, but requires substantial sums from County taxes for its support. The Walnut Creek Court should not, by an up-grading to Municipal Court status, further increase this general tax burden on all citizens, and the higher filing fees paid by litigants, until such time as the Concord Court can no longer handle the case load in the $500 to $3000 range," Walker said.

WALKER WAS one of the attorneys who was instrumental in forming the Concord Municipal Court, which he considers adequate for the Central Contra Costa County area.

He has previously stressed that, if elected Judge of the Justice Court of the Walnut Creek Judicial District, that he will devote full time to that position by discontinuing his private law practice.

JOSEPH MAGNIN

Assembly Candidates Present Their Views

The following statements are those of the two candidates for Assemblyman, 10th District, on their opinions on matters which they consider to be of ultimate importance in The Assembly.

The Sun asked them for a statement on what they considered the most important issues which will face the new Assemblyman when he takes office.

Following are the statements of Jerome Waldie and Sam Conti.

Jerome Waldie

Jerome R. Waldie, Antioch attorney and Democratic candidate for the 10th District Assembly post, in response to a request by the Sun papers, today reviewed the issues that are, in his opinion, of most interest to the residents of the 10th District.

Waldie stated that he believed the primary issues are as follow:

1. The inability of the Republican leadership to alleviate hardships occasioned by the recession.

2. The intrusion into a peaceful management-labor scene of a politically motivated attempt to destroy collective bargaining and thereby cause unrest and violence in the labor-management relations.

3. THE FAILURE of the Republican leadership to take positive steps to resolve the water dilemma for California, and more, the incomprehensible position of Senator Knowland wherein he forsakes the Northern position on water in favor of the South.

4. The desperate need to find new sources of State income to aid financially impoverished school districts.

Waldie called upon his Republican opponent to join him in a denunciation of Knowland for attempting to pay Southern political campaign debts with Northern water. "If Knowland's sell-out of Northern water is successful, industrial development and agricultural activity will cease. The cessation of economic development thus caused will mean higher taxes and lower incomes."

WALDIE NOTED that his Republican opponent had already joined him in opposition to his mis-named "Right To Work" laws.

"I further suggest that the Republican candidate urge Governor Knight to renounce his opposition to the extension of unemployment entitlement period as has been proposed by President Eisenhower.

"It is inconceivable that the Republican State leadership can be so shortsighted and immune to the economic suffering of our people who find their unemployment benefits either exhausted or nearly so."

Waldie announced that "the unfortunate dilemma in which our populous central area finds itself due to inadequate bases of taxation, with respect to school financing demands immediate attention.

"INCREASED STATE aid to impoverished districts is a possible solution. Exploration of the possibility of consolidated school districts should be made. The lack of proper educational facilities in any portion of our State will reflect adversely on the entire State and the responsibility of providing adequate educational facilities for all areas, is a responsibility of the entire State."

Sam Conti

The next session of the California legislature will place upon your Assemblyman greater responsibility for sound, intelligent and efficient representation than in any prior session. Issues vital to all of us in the State and the 10th District will have to be dealt with and solutions found, in order that we may continue to progress and prosper.

To point out but a few of these important issues, without regard to any consideration of their order of importance:

(1) EDUCATION today is taking approximately one-half of the total State budget, and still we have thousands of our children on double and triple sesion, together with the problems of the improverished school districts; education problems will be of prime importance today and for the years to come.

(2) Tax problems-economy in government must be the watchword, in order that the taxpayer receives the fullest value for the tax dollar paid so as to curtail the possibility of any tax increase.

(3) Water—no-one questions that development of northern rivers is essential to the well-being of the whole State, north and south alike; however, Contra Costa County must protect its interests in this most important resource.

WATER LEGISLATION is necessary not only from the standpoint of the need for water, but also to effect a flood control program in our district.

(4) Continued improvement and and expansion of highways and freeways in our district, with protection of the ratio of the disbursement of gas tax monies, in order that we will receive our fair share of these monies and bring the needed highway improvements to our fast growing district.

The foregoing are but a few of the important issues facing the next legislature; but what is of more importance, is the direct responsibility of your Assemblyman to the district he represents—a responsibility to the end that the interests, rights and welfare of the district are protected and advanced.

Fire Engine Rides Offered By Louis Store

Ole Davy Crockett's gonna be entertaining the kiddies at Louis Stores in Lafayette tomorrow.

This "Ole Davy," however, isn't the one of Alamo fame. Instead, he's a massive pile of red metal . . . a fire engine that served for the past 37 years in the City of Crockett.

Having served that city gallantly since 1921, "Ole Davy" is now being utilized to educate children in fire prevention and to entertain them with rides on a real fire engine—sirens roaring, red lights flashing, and fire-fighting equipment still ready for instant use.

All children are invited for a free ride on the 1921 American LaFrance fire engine, all day Saturday.

WORD TO THE WISE GARDENER

Hundreds of gardeners have used a unique service (in our industry) we offer our customers.

It is designed for home owners requiring nursery stock and garden supplies in quantity, and who may have been putting off fixing up a lawn or garden because of the expense involved.

Here is how it works: you buy all you need to complete your project in May. You arrange to pay us on our 90-day budget plan. First payment is due in June., second in July and the balance is payable in August. There is no interest or carrying charge. You can fix up a new garden or do over an old one and spread the cost over a three months period.

Come in this weekend. You will find all you need to plan, plant and enjoy a beautiful garden. And while you are here, pick up the latest controls for garden pests, by Ortho, and let us show you the advantages of gardening with pure Canadian Sunshine Brand peat moss.

AN OPEN QUESTION TO MR. DUNKLEE
INCUMBENT COUNTY ASSESSOR

MR. INCUMBENT:

As you know, I am a CANDIDATE AGAINST you in the June 3, 1958, primary and since an INCUMBENT must run on HIS RECORD, I feel it is time for you to tell the PEOPLE the answers to several important questions:

Why were tax assessments in Contra Costa County boosted THIRTY FIVE (35%) PERCENT by YOUR OFFICE, while at least one other county—TULARE, didn't raise at all—and other counties had much smaller raises?

You were quoted in the Contra Costa Times, February 21, 1957, as follows: "Dunklee said he had no quarrel with the State Board of Equalization as to the constitutionality of its order that assessment valuations in Contra Costa County be raised 35 percent."

Mr. Phil Lucas, assessor of Tulare, told me he fought this matter up to the Supreme Court and won his case and "did not have to make any raise," in accordance with this order.

The San Francisco Examiner, several weeks ago reported that Mr. George Hall, Assessor of Marin county since 1932—who also resisted the 35% order—finally agreed to a new reappraisal assessment which amounts to a TWENTY TWO (22%) PERCENT increase—instead of the 35% increase you put into effect.

Why were you so generous with CONTRA COSTA TAXPAYERS' money, Mr. DUNKLEE?

Respectfully,

ERNEST J. MARCHI
1519 Locust St., Walnut Creek. CANDIDATE for the office of CONTRA COSTA COUNTY ASSESSOR.

Diablo Playhouse Will Present 'Tender Trap'

The gay comedy, "Tender Trap," will be presented as part of the Diablo Art Federation's Pageant of Arts May 31 and June 7 at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center

When the curtain rises on this three act comedy, the audience will be taken into the bachelor apartment of Charlie Reader. Charlies is besieged by the attentions and favors of several beautiful women, much to the amazement of his visiting married friend, Joe McCall. As Charlie explains, it's not what he has but what he doesn't have—a wife, that is.

THE AUTHOR, Max Shulman, pokes fun at suburban living, bachelors, and 35 year old unmarried women, providing a continuous round of laughs as Charlie fends off the glamour girls.

The play is directed by Leon Dinkin, who has recently organized the new theater group, the "Diablo Playhouse."

Dr. Frank Sher will portray the bachelor, Charlie Reader. His friend,Joe McCall, who is the same age as Charlie but is married and shows a few more signs of wear, will be played by Jack Varner.

As Sylvia Crewes, Ethel Appel will play the part of the handsome woman in her early thirties who is something special in Charlie's life. When the beautiful Julie Gillis, who has many attractions and who is only 22 years old, comes on the scene—Charlie is led a merry chase. Julie is played by Phyllis Sher.

IN THE PART of lovely Poppy Mattson will be Ruth Dolgin. Eleanor Silverman will portray a decorative lady named Jessica Collins with a deep south accent

Earl Linquist, played by Fred Marcus, stomps on the scene to report on lab tests for Joe McCall's new pill to cure the common cold. Dick Corriveau will play the supporting role of Sol Schwartz.

Tickets for this delightful comedy are available from members of the Diablo Playhouse, on nights of the performance, or by calling Diablo Playhouse, Yellowstone 4-8072.

Performances will be May 31 and June 7, Walnut Creek Recreation Center. Curtain time: 8:30 p.m.

Czaja Art Show Set Saturday

Meeting recently at the home of Mrs. George Monheit, 1107 Magnolia Lane, Lafayette, the Social Committee of Valley Art Center concluded its preparations for the Michael Czaja show, to be held May 10th.

This committee is composed of 36 members. It does all of the planning and hostessing for the many functions sponsored by Valley Art Center.

Mmes. Paul Cooper, A. James Ford, Richard Ward, William Boaz, and William Zion are chairmen contributing their efforts to coordinating plans for refreshments and decorations. Mmes. William Ornduff, Newton Davis, A. Parker Stack, Lewis Rugaber, John Martsolf, and Richard Johnston are in charge of invitations.

This garden exhibit of Michael Czaja's paintings promises to draw many local and prominent art lovers. Because Czaja is an active person in community affairs with a wide range of interests and talents, his show is eagerly anticipated.

Using Spanish environs as a theme, his oils and watercolors reflect a close study of Moorish architecture and clean, contemporary, abstract interpretation

The exhibit will be open from four o'clock in the afternoon until nine o'clock at 1440 Maria Lane, Walnut Creek. To reach Maria Lane, turn east off Main Street on Newell, cross the bridge, and turn south on Maria Lane. Valley Art Center is making no admission charge for this event.
